

Santa Baby

When I was young, my mom would play the piano and my brother Don would play the trumpet. I can still hear Don's trumpet full of soul playing this piece with mom backing him up. I jazzed it up in honor of my brother Don who could melt your heart with his trumpet while he was alive.